Karnataka
One state. Many worlds.

Welcome to Om Beach Resort - perched on the spur of a hill in the ancient coastal town of Gokarna. It lies at the confluence of the Aghanashini and Gangavalli rivers and is cradled between the Sahyadris and the Arabian Sea. Its timeless temples and beguiling beaches draw a steady stream of devout pilgrims and tourists. While Gokarna's temples transcended eras, its beaches are throbbing with life. With rugged trekking trails and great outdoors the adventurous can embark on paths of discovery in and around Gokarna. You can also unwind with a relaxing massage at the Ayurveda center.

Gokarna is a small temple town on the western coast of India in the Kumta taluk of Uttara Kannada district of the state of Karnataka. The main temple and deity is Lord Shiva, who is also known as Mahabaleshwara. This temple houses what is believed to be original image of Lord Shiva's linga (Atmalinga).

Gokarna is famous for its pristine beaches. The famed Om Beach, the quiet Kudle Beach, the secluded Half Moon Beach and the beautiful Paradise Beach are four scenic strips of sand sandwiched between the hills.
