Unit of Jungle Lodges & Resorts Ltd., Govt. of Karnataka, India.

Karnataka
One state. Many worlds.

Welcome to Dubare Elephant Camp – situated in Coorg, on the banks of the river Cauvery, which originates from the neighbouring misty hills of Talacauvery. The tropical setting of Dubare draws a multitude of nature lovers who visit Coorg, the coffee land of India. Forest department gets aged, wounded elephants here and treat them and train them for ages along with veterinary doctors, mahouts and naturalist and they were earlier used for lifting and shifting logs and other activities. Elephants trained here are annually brought to Mysore during Dasara festival to carry Chamudeshwari idol during procession which is called Jumbo Savari witnessed by millions of tourists.

A trained naturalist is at hand to explain the various aspects of Elephant history, ecology and biology. The visitor can not only observe and learn but also participate in various activities, such as, washing them in river, preparing food for them, feeding and walking with them along with mahouts and naturalist. This intimate experience with Elephants is called “ELEPHANT INTERACTION”. Idea behind this is, a tourist who participate in this would leave the camp feeling enriched and enlightened about Elephants and hopefully they would become sensitive to their plight in the wild and join the lobby to save them from extinction.
